5. Booth assignment
Notification on the booth sizes and locations will be sent to the exhibitors once advance planning is complete; at the earliest upon approval. These assignments will be binding.

6. Costs to be allocated
The catering and electrical power consumption costs (see § 9 ATB) will be allocated to the participants.

7. Design Framework

The exhibitors are responsible for any graphic and design work as well as the structural planning of the company booths that exceeds the scope of the services paid for as part of the participation cost. Such work has to be presented to ECM for approval. Immobile add-on equipment (wall graphics, screwed into place pedestals, company logos, screens, etc.) may only be commissioned through the booth-building partner contracted by ECM.

8. Payment terms

An amount equivalent to 100 % of the participation cost is due along with the written registration. The exhibitor will receive an invoice.
All bank fees will be for the exhibitor's account.

The non-utilization of certain company specific services will not establish any reason for a reduction of the participation cost. Uniform design elements are absolutely mandatory. Place of fulfillment and jurisdiction is Berlin, Germany.

9. Transportation

The exhibitor is solely responsible for the proper import and export of goods.

10. Company data

The exhibitor agrees to the computer supported entry, storage and sharing of the company data with third parties.

11. Non-performance

The exhibitor is hereby expressly advised that the services mentioned will be provided by ECM only subject to the following minimum occupancy level:
63 sqm net booth floor space with complete booth installations. ECM shall at all times have the right to rescind from this Agreement if the abovementioned minimum participation level is not attained. In this case, the paid amounts shall be refunded to the exhibitor with prejudice, i.e. the exhibitor shall not be entitled to any other claims.

However, in the event of insufficient occupation, ECM shall initially send each registered exhibitor an offer taking into account the additional costs incurred. An increase of the participation costs by 5% shall be deemed agreed upon with the exhibitor upon registration and shall not be subject to exhibitor's consent.

12. Insurance

It shall be mandatory for the exhibitor to obtain proper insurance coverage for all risks subject to mandatory coverage. ECM shall not assume responsibility for this service.

13. Taxes and Fees

The participation cost does not include the taxes and fees that apply in the respective country. These may be charged retroactively in certain cases.
